

Someone's listening to you

Here's 17 reasons why I think everyone should get a Vox ADSL Phone :

1. No need to buy a DSL Modem
2. No need to get tied into a lengthy contract
3. Keep your existing Telkom number
4. Keep using your existing Internet Service Provider
5. Enjoy an additional telephone line without additional Telkom line rental costs
6. Use your ADSL service for more than just Internet
7. Free Voicemail service
8. Free Call Waiting and On Hold service
9. Save with fantastically cheap call rates, on and off-peak
10. Get paid 20c per minute for incoming calls from Telkom
11. Get paid 20c per minute for incoming calls from International
12. Get paid 40c per minute for incoming calls from Cellular
13. Make international calls at radically cheap call rates
14. Make Free Calls with other Vox Customers
15. Save with cheaper Call Forwarding
16. Take your 087 number with you when you move home or office
17. Enjoy carrier quality voice calls

When I look at this list all I can say is that it's a heap of benefit and huge value. So why wait? For just R49/month you too can get all this and enjoy the 18th benefit, convergence.

If you are interested in these benefits or would like to discuss your requirements further, please call me on 082 409 3414
